Prospect Research Is a Verb: Fundraising Is the Subject

By Meredith Hancks, Cara Rosson

Charitychannel LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Prospect Research Is a Verb: Fundraising Is the Subject is a prospect research manual that s down-to-earth, easy-to-follow, and even fun to read. Meredith Hancks and Cara Rosson divide the manual into four Parts, each dealing with a specific aspect of project research. They make innovative use of the old-fashioned gift pyramid to provide a surprisingly helpful visual aid for examining the levels of research required for different types of prospects. In chapters 1 through 10, you will learn about the foundations for the profession. This information lays the groundwork for each of the next sections of chapters. Chapters 11 through 16 discuss basic research skills for foundational prospects-generally considered annual fund prospects. When presented with a very preliminary request for research, you will probably need the information in this section. Chapters 17 through 22, Middle of the Road, build upon the first two sections of chapters but can also stand alone. In these chapters, you will learn about research for real estate, gift capacity, and networks. This chapter is the starting point for identifying potential major...
