ABSTRACTION IN REVERSE : THE RECONFIGURED SPECTATOR IN MID-TWENTIETH-CENTURY LATIN AMERICAN ART

The University Of Chicago Press Jun 2017, 2017. Buch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - Most of the books about modern art in South America have focused on particular artists or nations. There has been no book-length history of the movement as it evolved across the continent until now. Alexander Alberro has written that book. Profusely illustrated and beautifully written, it explores how artists working in several cities (Buenos Aires, Montevideo, Caracas, Sao Paulo, and Rio de Janeiro) in the mid-twentieth century...
