River Hills Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Five stories of mature men and women from all walks of life finding love in the cold days of winter. The Christmas Pony by Sarah M. Anderson: What's Alice supposed to do with a pony? The teacher only knows the animal was left on her porch right before Christmas. Then handsome Animal Control Officer Kirk Douglas shows up, asking questions that Alice prefers not to answer. But even the mystery surrounding the animal's origins can't stop the holiday spark that ignites between Alice and Kirk. Can their attraction survive ugly-sweater parties, well-meaning relatives and the Christmas pony? Midnight Clear by Ros Clarke A year ago, Alison had it all: a husband, a family, and a purpose in life. But now, following a painful divorce, everything's changed. She doesn't know where her life is going, and her faith is as wobbly as her lopsided Christmas tree. When she's bowled over by an enthusiastic Irish setter in the park, and the rather gorgeous older man on the end of his lead, she's not expecting more than a quick coffee and the mud brushed off her coat. Certainly not a Christmas like she's never had before, full of peace, joy, and maybe even love? Sparks by Laura K. Curtis Kate Bellows has no room for weakness if she's going to pull JanCo Moving out of the hole it's in and create a solid career for herself. Her carefully-laid plans, however, are no match for the fire that burns her house to the ground. With few options, she accepts an offer to spend Christmas with the volunteer firefighter who'd injured himself trying to save her house....
