MARYLAND COLONIZATION JOURNAL, 1847, VOL. 3 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Maryland Colonization Journal, 1847, Vol. 3 But we now propose to use the argument of the thing, not of words. There is the Liberia Packet. Six months since she was on the stocks. She has been once to Liberia, freighted with aspirants to freedom and liberty. She has returned again to this port laden with the products of that country. She brought home not one, two or three, but twelve witnesses, ready to declare to you the words of truth and soberness. They are not hirelings - they are not suborned, perjured witnesses and slaves - they come not at the call or command of the Colonization society, or any other society, but are engaged in the prosecution of their own labors, pursuits and purposes - and when these objects are accomplished, they will again return to their home. There, we say, is the Liberia Packet; and if it is an object for any of you to see for yourselves, if there is, for you, a better country, a better government than this, go and see. In four months from the 1st of September, the day of her sailing, she will again return to this port, and then, if you choose, you can return to your brush or razor strop, your curry comb or your dray cart. If, after having once enjoyed the bland breezes of the tropics, after having seen the free ocean waves dashing on the free soil of Liberia - if after having seen the thriving towns of Monrovia and Harper, with their schools, churches and halls of justice - if after having seen the magnificent palm waving over the hamlet of...
