We are the host or hostess who invites Him in and treats Him royally. The Presence of God is our greatest treasure. The Holy Spirit is the Kingdom we seek, and in the Kingdom, He gives us life transforming encounters. He invites us to divine appointments with Him. Out of the place where we commune with God, rivers of living water flow from our inner most being. The very basic ingredient that makes each one of us tick, and gives us the desires of our hearts, is the intimacy we have with God. We are destined to know Him, personally!.
