E5546 2005a OCLC Number: (GPO)apn2005-012377 Subject: Telecommunication in education -- United States -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . 11 The Telecommunications Act of 1996 neither specified how FCC was to administer universal service to schools and libraries nor prescribed the structure and legal parameters of the universal service mechanisms to be created. To carry out the day-to-day activities of the E-rate program, FCC relied on a structure it had used for other universal service programs in the past - a not-for-profit corporation established at FCC's direction that would operate under FCC oversight. However, the structure of the E-rate program is unusual in several respects compared with other federal programs: FCC appointed USAC as the permanent administrator of the Universal Service 12 Fund, and FCC's Chairman has final approval over USAC's Board of Directors. USAC is responsible for administering the program under FCC orders, rules, and directives. However, USAC is not part of FCC or any other government entity; it is not a government corporation established by Congress; and no contract or memorandum of understanding exists between FCC and USAC for the administration...
