A giant fertilizer bomb detonated by Sheriff John Wright and retired Army engineer Frank Marshall failed to destroy the archangels saucer. Worse, the bombing lets loose a flock of angel/human hybrids upon the small town of Creedance, Missouri, and causes, for unexplainable reasons, some of the recently deceased to come back to life. Kiss My Empty Braincase, and I Die All Over Again But the resurrected are not brain-eating zombies or vampires; they re the rejuvenated and charismatic undead, and they take living lovers. Things become a bit surreal, both for the living and the undead. Laura Jacobsen has unique issues. One, she missed out on the first offerings of immortality by not merging with an archangel. She considers a quest to merge with the last remaining archangel - if his sleeping body can be recovered from Lost Lake. Her quest is interrupted as she falls in love with a undead man,...
