There is nothing as sweeter as knowing that the Heavenly Father considers you one of His own, bought by the blood of Jesus Christ. However, some modern-day Christians may have replaced a thriving existence with God to a life dictated by religious rules. As a disciple of Jesus, we are supposed to embody what is written in Luke 10: 27, being lovers of God and others, not of regulations. Authors Jane Cordell and Tiffany Waters help lead Christians to this biblical truth in their new Bible study, No Sweeter Roots, which focuses on becoming intimate with God again through actively obeying and seeking Him. The studies re-educate readers on truths about Gods love and what He created each person to be and do. As we are all rooted in Jesus upon surrender to Him, we then become His disciples, doing Gods will in our lives in true worship to the Father. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
