Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abolition and Secession, or Cause and Effect: Together With the Remedy for Our Sectional Troubles, by an Unionist After eighty years of peace, progress and boundless prosperity, the great American people find themselves in a civil war the most stupendous and frightful recorded in history. What does it mean This stupendous inquiry, hitherto utterly hidden from the great-hearted, honest and patriotic masses, the writer preposes to answer. And to do this satisfactorily, he has divided the subject into three separate portions, thus enabling the reader to obtain clearer views of all phases of the stupendous question new shaking the continent from centre to circumference. First - He Will demonstrate that negroes are a different and subordinate species of mankind, and in their normal condition at the Smith, and there fore a Warfare on so-called slavery is a warfare on society, and impartial freedom, immediate or ultimate, either now or a thousand years hence, must necessarily involve the destruction of that section.
