This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject American Studies - Culture and Applied Geography, grade: good, University of Potsdam (Institute for Anglistics/ American Studies), course: PS/ GK Introduction to Media Science, 25 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: What is violence Kunczik says it is an intentional physical or/and psychical damage to a person, a living being or a thing, through another person. 1(15) Theunert considers violence only between human beings. Offenders and victims are always one or more persons. 2(89) Kunczik says one also could differentiate between concrete violence and fictional violence, as well as between natural and artificial violence. Concrete violence is about shown behaviour, which results in violence, either physical or psychical. Fictional violence is only the presentation of it. And so natural violence means the real and genuine violence, for example shown in movies. And at last the artificial representation means the un-real representation, for example shown in cartoons. 2. History of Violence in the Media Historically spoken, violence in the media is not a phenomenon of the present;...
