Winthrop, of Mass: On the President's Message, Transmitting the Constitution of California; Delivered in Committee of the Whole in the House of Representatives of the United States, May 8, 1850 Mr. Winthrop said: When I had the honor of addressing the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union some weeks ago, I intimated my purpose to take another opportunity, at no distant day, to express, some what more in detail than I was able to do on that occasion, the views which I entertain in regard to what have well been called the great questions of the day. The eager competitions for the floor which have been witnessed here almost without intermission from that time to this, have postponed the accomplishment of this purpose much longer than I could have desired. I rise now, however, at last, to fulfil it. And most heartily do I wish. Mr. Chairman, that in doing so, I could see my way clear to contribute something to the repose of...
