Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Two Thousand Questions and Answers About the War: A Catechism of the Methods of Fighting, Travelling and Living; Of the Armies, Navies and Air Fleets; Of the Personalities, Politics and Geography of the Warring Countries The questions and answers in the pages of this volume have come from suggestions offered by many different people. The nucleus of paragraphs around which the first edition was built came from Henry Stead s War Fact Book, which was published in book form in the spring of 1918 in Australia - the accumulation of nearly one hundred chapters of the Catechism of the War which has been a semi-monthly feature of Stead s Review during the war. The editor chiefly responsible for the work of compiling and classification of both the first and the present edition of 2000 Questions and Answers is Mr. Julius W.Muller of New York. This second edition has been revised under the editorial supervision of a university professor of history obtained through the suggestion, made at our request, of the authorities at Washington. Mr. Muller has been a well-known newspaper man in the metropolis for more than 27 years, and has filled editorial positions on two New York dailies over a considerable period of years. As an author he is chiefly known for his patriotic work The Invasion of America, published first in syndicate form by a number of the most prominent newspapers in America and later issued in book form by E. P. Dutton Co. This work of fiction, picturing the invasion of America via New England as an accomplished fact, was one of the first and most vigorous stimulants to the military preparedness...
