STUDIES FROM THE LABORATORIES OF THE DEPT OF SURGERY, VOL. 4 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Studies From the Laboratories of the Dept of Surgery, Vol. 4 The articles found in these four volumes reveal but a fragment of the time and effort expended during these twenty-five years in the laboratory by students and by graduates, who never published their observations but surely carried away to their practice added experience in the art and science of surgery. As a consequence, the Laboratory, the College and medicine is deeply indebted to all who have given so freely of their time and effort. Therefore, appreciation is here expressed for what they have accomplished, well knowing the satisfaction so many of them have derived from their work. The readings made by man by means of his many marvelous instruments of precision focused upon happenings in every field of science, all his observations made through the ages, assayed by the modes of thought which have been nurtured by philosophy and reassayed by mathematics, declare against a status quo and inevitably in favor of continuous change. All is happenings; all is change - happenings; functions - never thing nor structure alone. This presages that the investigator in biology must be cautious if he leans too heavily upon statistics, upon records of things discovered upon conclusions. All those who count, measure and weigh, dealing in length, breadth and thickness must be cautious lest they forget that they probably live in a many dimensioned sphere of continuous happenings upon which they are attempting to fix a three dimensional hat that they have been taught to see. The investigator, therefore, must be aware that nothing is dead, but all is alive; he must be aware that he never sees...
