

Belly Timber (Paperback)

By Gary Lee Vincent

Burning Bulb Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. From the writers of Darkened Hills, Detour to Armageddon, and Night of the Living Dead comes a novel unlike any other. In the 1800 s, ordinary people learned the secret of the Kala and undertook extraordinary measures to rid the earth of this evil. This is their story. For John McCormick, life on the Indiana frontier held nothing but promise. His settlement along the White River would soon become the crossroads of America. Friends and family from back in Ohio and other points east were all making plans to see what all the fuss was about in the newly-formed city of Indianapolis. Yes, things were good. John had his general store and his friend George Pogue had his blacksmith business. Claims were being staked and relations with the native Indians were amicable. The town was growing and nothing could be better. or so he thought. In Ohio, an evil was brewing. The Lecky Family, a group of ruthless Mongolian nomads, had made their way to America and were practicing their cannibalistic religion of Kala with reckless abandon. No one was...
