A job at a blossoming travel agency offers Jayme the time to heal and get her life back. Dubbed the Reef Roamer, Jayme explores the Caribbean creating detailed travel videos. The underwater adventures work as a type of therapy, that is until Jayme's latest assignment sends her back to the reef where her beloved husband died. Determined to put her past fully behind her, Jayme accepts the challenge. Dr. Mark Steele has his own demons, and they're in the form of a green-eyed woman who blames him for her husband's death. Mark never imagined the beautiful widow who plagued his dreams for years would show back up at his hospital injured while exploring the same reef that claimed the life of her husband. Mark knows this is his chance to finally make it right. When Mark's efforts to heal her wounds turn into a desire to heal her heart, things get complicated.
