Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 79: June 14, 1917 As you know, for the last sixty-odd years the Church has had its headquarters in the little old buildings which were erected by President Brigham Young, away back in the early fifties, and which at the time served the purpose very well, and have con tinned to do so until now; still, they have become worn with age, and not quite in keeping with the progress of other things. A couple of years ago we determined to construct a building which Would afford office room for our various organizations. Previously, however, a very creditable building had been erected for the Pre siding Bishopric, and for the Relief Societies and other organiza tions of the Church. But we decided that we would build a house that would furnish suitable accommodations for the Presidency and others, and at the same time would be a monument of the real character of the work in which we are engaged. I am happy to say that we have practically completed it, although we have been delayed on account of the lack of facility 011 the part of some of those who have contracted to furnish material with which to complete the adornment of the walls. We are waiting for marble. I am pleased to say that we have used, in the adornment of the interior walls of our building, as far as it was possible, home materials - marble and onyx and precious stones that exist in great abundance in Utah, and it is therefore practically a homemade building. There has been expended for the erection and equip ment of the new Church Office...
