They constantly think of better ways to operate grander schemes to be successful. They can paint a picture with their words. They see light years into their future. They have to concentrate to live in the present, because their mind is always in constant expectation. Dreamers take leaps of faith, live in joy and laughter, celebrate success, and learn from their failures. Are you a dreamer? Does this describe you? If not, What Happened to Your Dreams? From Anthony Murray, comes a thought provoking book that meets readers at the point of their need. This is not a cookie cutter formula to dream building. Instead, he encourages an enriched deep intimate relationship with God. To understand who you are, you must go to the one who created you. In the fullness of God is joy - and your dreams are there also. What Happened to Your Dreams? will spark creativity and new ideas. It will cause you not only to dream, but to Dream Big and Do More....
