BABY & CHILD CARE

Unicorn Books, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This book will serve as a guide to mothers-to-be and mothers of newborns, infants, toddlers and young children. It deals with the normal development, day-to-day care, health issues, behavioural issues and emergencies related to infants, toddlers and young children. This book contains illustrations and pictures regarding the same. The common day-to-day queries of mothers have been answered in a 'question and answer' format to make it more interesting for mothers to go through the book. The author has taken pains to keep the answers as concise and crisp as possible; at the same time conveying all the relevant information to the mother. This book will also be useful for mothers-to-be as it has a special section on 'pregnancy care'. This book also covers about certain laws related to pregnant women, adoption and infant food.
