Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Graded Instruction in English for the Use of Teachers The object in preparing this course of instruction in English as solely for use in the school of which the author is principal. The solicitation of fellow workers in Chicago who have watched its success, is the reason for publishing it in its present form. Many teachers, perhaps the majority, will disapprove the plan; but it has already many friends There is no denying the fact that the teaching of good English, as shown by the results, is a sad failure. As common a charge as any brought against the public schools by the journals is that pupils leave the grammar schools without being able to write a decent letter. The worst of it is that the charge is true as concerns the majority of the schools, and it is just as true that such results are unnecessary. The teacher who attempts the following plan without understanding the whole scope and intent of it, at least to include her own grade, and who does not make daily preparation for the lesson to be presented, can have only partial success - or failure. What is wanted with little children is practice and not reasons. This cannot be too strongly impressed. Hence in the early language lessons, leave out the why altogether. A large majority of all ungrammatical expressions may be grouped under a limited number of topics. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
