Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for Officers Serving on Board U. S. Cruising Training Ships: 1899 Sir: In obedience to Bureaus letter of March 22, 1899, the following report is respectfully submitted, giving the results of my experience while in command of the training ship Annapolis and the methods followed in training apprentices during two winter cruises in the West Indies. 2. In accordance with the wishes of the Bureau, these notes and suggestions have been indexed and arranged in the form of a guide or manual, so that if the Bureau so desires they can be published for the information and guidance of commanding officers of training ships. 3. With regard to the itinerary, a list of the ports considered best adapted for training ships is given, with a few additional items of importance not found in the sailing directions. Lists of questions in all branches of seamanship, gunnery, signals, etc., are given, covering information and knowledge considered essential in the instruction and training of apprentices; the method of organization is described; the daily and weekly routine of drills and exercises, the best places for target practice and for landing shore parties are named; the daily bill of fare for one month in home waters and one month in foreign waters is given in detail; the subjects of discipline, hygiene, liberty, and liberty money are touched upon; the clothing outfit, punishment, and demerit schedule, and all matters relating to the training of apprentices in cruising training ships are set down as they were carried out on the Annapolis during the winters of 1897-98 and 1898-99.
