Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jamie Wakefield had achieved everything he always wanted. He was happy. He was bored. Then he met Wendy, a woman from his past, now living in Spain. Though he had never even wanted to leave Vermont, Jamie followed his new love to a new country. And found exactly what he needed and never knew he wanted. This is Jamie s humorous and moving description of his soul s rebirth and his breathless wonder at this new world. He takes us along as he discovers that Europeans, in fact, aren t just like Americans. That fish eyes, goose barnacles, and octopus are actually delicious. He shares the complete agony of learning Spanish at forty-one, his awe at the grand and ancient scale of European architecture, and his amazement at falling in love with the drama of a tiny man staring down a twelve hundred pound bull. From the back cover: Do you know they eat babies in Europe? Yeah, every chance they get. Suckling goat, suckling pig, suckling lamb, you name it, if it s on its mother s teat they can t wait to pull it off and roast it over a roaring fire. Do you know what it s like to have a two-hundred pound cow, with horns, slam into your knees and throw you over its back completely ignoring the cape you re waving in front of it? Because I do, and let me tell you, that is not the fun part of a capea. Do you know the patron saint of Segovia looks just like Gandalf and turned back advancing Moors intent on attacking the city by drawing a line in the sand with his staff and shouting You...
