MEMORIAL AND PETITION OF JANET M. BALDWIN: TO HON. THOMAS F. BAYARD, SECRETARY OF STATE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memorial and Petition of Janet M. Baldwin: To Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, Secretary of State The assassins at once demanded of the miners that Mr. Baldwin should come out of the tunnel and surrender himself, and said: We intend to make away with the entire gringo Company [meaning the american Company] one ey one in the same way; and unless you bring him out at once we will fire upon you. The head miner reported the demand to Mr. Baldwin and he sent him back to inquire if it was money they wanted, and if so, that he would see that they were paid any sum they might demand. A par ley then ensued between the head miner and the assassins, in which, the assassins promised, that if Mr. Baldwin would come out of the tunnel and surrender himself, they would treat with him on a money basis and do him no harm. Relying upon their said promise and supposing that he could regulate [negotiate] with them, as Mr. Carrollhad done, as hereinafter set forth, he went out and surrendered himself to them. The assassins immediately ordered him to mount his mule. He succeeded in getting on the animal, but was so badly wounded and was so weak from loss of blood, that he could not guide the animal. The assassins called a boy from among the miners and ordered him to lead it, and then departed. After they had been gone some time the miners heard five shots fired, and, upon following the direction from which the sound proceeded, they found Mr. Baldwin lying dead upon the trail, shot through the head, the ball entering his right eye, going through...
