Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reviews What a privilege it has been to watch God transform Linda Hanahan from a mere church attendee to a disciple of Jesus Christ. That transformation has led her to being uniquely gifted by Him to share her heart through writing. Her first book, Touched From Above, was a marvelous testimony of God's grace drawing her unto Himself. This, her second book, will take you deeper in and higher up in her relationship with Jesus Christ. Linda's authenticity in her writings reflects a God-awareness and a self-awareness that is refreshing to read. I believe that this book will be both an encouragement and a challenge to you to be real in your relationships with God, with others, and with yourself. -David M. Keazirian, Senior Pastor First Presbyterian Church, New Smyrna Beach, FL Linda Hanahan has been blessed with the gift of listening, of being still, of opening herself to the voice of God speaking to her personally through the Holy Spirit. Linda has also been gifted to be able to write in a beautifully meaningful way that inspires and encourages her readers to also hear that still small voice speaking to them. Linda's revelations of her ongoing conversations with God provide us with hope and comfort that someone else is experiencing the same struggles of faith and purpose, as are we. I am pleased that my sister in Christ has continued to write and share her ongoing spiritual conversation with us in this new work. -Tom Burleson, Commissioned Lay Pastor

Product DescriptionThe author states, As I was in the final stages of publishing my first book, Touched From Above, it honestly did not occur to me that there might ever...
