Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Azar is a seventeen year old girl who lives in New York city with her two siblings Alexander and Alyssia. She can go into a coma for years on end, transporting her to a world called Drearth, meaning Dream Earth . She s more accustomed to that lifestyle. The people call her, The Chosen One, because The Divine, who was the savior of their world, had chosen her as a reincarnation. Aericke is Azar s best friend and protector, ever since they first met when she was seven. He is only slightly older than her and he is two thirds blood collector and one third human. Why two thirds? His father was half of one species of Blood collector, and half another. His mother was human. He killed his own older brother to protect Azar. Gale is a boy in Azar s class on Earth. Azar was friends with his brother, Jayce. Gale has a Brooklyn accent and is a quarter back on the American Football team. He teases Azar a lot. Sylvia used to be a house cat belonging to Azar s good friend Sarah named Roxkitty. She has the physic of a human girl around age 16 and healthy. She does, however, have cat like ears and a long, black tail. These four adventurers traverse the world Drearth trying to find King Erebus, the ruler of Blood Collectors. His kind had been crossing over to Earth and killing humans, sucking their blood dry. A rebel of them contacted Azar, informing her of the situation. When Azar lands in Drearth, she finds Gale and Sylvia had come with her, and at first, all she wanted was to keep them in a...
