And he could never have known the brief particle of time it took to do it would come back to haunt him fifty years before it happened. Jenny Forrester, brilliant physicist and devoted mother, couldn't have envisaged she would lose her life fifteen years before she even existed. And LCFM DJ Annie Anderson was blissfully unaware that moving out of the capital to deepest, darkest Norfolk would throw her head-first into a nightmare far worse than the one she'd left behind. To begin with, it seemed to Annie she'd made the right decision; she spends a fun-filled first weekend in her new pad, dragging along her best friend and producer, brash bottle-blonde Essex-girl Sally Brown for moral support. But Sally is a lot older than she looks, and is hiding a massive secret. And as strange and scary things start happening to Annie, Sally realises her friend's life is in grave danger.
