

Daughter of Oppression: The Shame of Our Law Caused Them to Fall (Paperback)

By M A W

Archway Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Revisiting the past is hard to do when you re a child of domestic violence. Jessica Thomas-Shell comes from a long line of people who suffered from domestic violence, childhood abuse, emotional abuse, and mental disorders. But she is resilient. Her life was moving full speed ahead until a family tragedy reopened old wounds. The hidden scars that simmered beneath the surface began to manifest in weird ways. Going through the grieving process and confronting a shameful past was the least of her worries. This family tragedy forced Jessica to look deep into her roots--the daughter of a miser and a murderer, the paternal granddaughter of a root worker and an adulterer, and the maternal granddaughter of a lonely man who harbored too many secrets. Her search starts with the American flag. Those vibrant colors of red, white, and blue will become a dark hue for Jessica when she discovers the truth about her family s history, revealing the ugly side of life. A story of self-discovery and closure. Jessica s journey rocks her Edgefield community, and at the same time throws...
