Its a fact that no worker or businessperson can ignore: The global work environment is changing radically, and at a dizzying rate. Telework, downsizing, the mass outsourcing of services (if your job can be performed over a wire, as a Forbes article recently pointed out, it soon will be), virtual offices and teams, metastasizing gridlock and ever-longer workweekscombine these with millions of small businesses scarred by the last recession and determined to keep staffing and other non-core costs to a minimum, and youll begin to see why virtual outsourcing and home-based virtual careers are among the most far-reaching developments to emerge on the American employment and family scene in quite some time. As youll find inside these pages, this groundbreaking movement is opening...
