2016: World Peace Writings (Paperback)

By Jerry Alatalo

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. 2016: World Peace Writings is a collection of over 500 nonfiction essays written, compiled and edited by U.S. author Jerry Alatalo. The writings will become appreciated in particular by those people interested in an interdisciplinary studies approach, which quite possibly includes every man, woman and child on Earth. In contrast to most authors books which focus through a narrow window or scope of intellectual exploration, often concentrating on a single discipline, 2016: World Peace Writings establishes a comprehensive perspective utilizing close to as wide a range of topics as possible. Foremost, the book places side-by-side philosophical and spiritual writings next to more standard or traditional news-style reports on extremely relevant, major world events. Readers are given another, valuable perspective too often entirely excluded from debates and discussions in the halls of governments, corporate offices or high-powered media newsrooms. Readers will surely determine for themselves the extent to which such an interdisciplinary writing/book creation approach is powerful, positive and effective in bringing about real evolutionary change for people living now, and future generations. Among the many relevant topics discussed in 2016: World...
