Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Traitor Government The gray dawn of the twentieth century is fast approaching, and we shall herald it with the sweet chime of liberty bells, which will proclaim to the world the breaking asunder of fetters that will no more enslave us; the overthrow for all time of our enemies; the proclamation of a new birth and of a government that will bind with cords of love into one brotherhood all mankind. Either this shall be our happy condition, or, hopelessly enslaved, we shall be the prey of our enemies, when darkness shall surround us never to disappear. Our boast of great achievements in literature, art, science, inventions and discoveries innumerable, shall avail us naught if only upon a few they shower their special blessings, while to the mass of toiling and untoiling millions no burden is uplifted, but, weary with life, they perish within sight of plenty. Our government is repeating the old story of the nations of the past, disintegration has set in, and we are going into rapid decay. Each day reveals more of its incapacity and inability to cope with the vexed problems that confront it. Every act done by the ruling powers is, not to solve the problem of government and apply a remedy, but to stave off and avert the day of impending judgment. Wealth and class rule, rapid advancement in education and art, go along with immorality and vice. The oppressor and the oppressed - a divided house - murmurings of discontent, hatred and revolution. Under the existing order of things a revolution is inevitable, and it must come either by the ballot or by the bullet. It...
