William Henry Moore was born Aug.24, 1820 in the town of East Lyme, Conn., on a farm that had been in the possession of his family 150 years, and was one of eleven children. Dedicated by his parents to the Christian ministry, he received his education at Yale College and at the Yale Divinity School, graduating from the former in 1841, and from the latter in 1844. After two years of teaching he was for seven years pastor of the Congregational Church in Torrington, Conn.; was then for a year editor of The Examiner, a religious paper published in Norwich, Conn.; and for the six years succeeding was pastor of the Congregational Church in Newtown, Conn. In 1862 he relinquished the pastoral ministry to become the State Missionary of the old Connecticut Home Missionary Society, in which service he continued the rest of his active life. Already, since 1859, because of his recognized special qualification for such functions. Registrar and Treasurer of the...
