Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dad, 81, has taught me how to work the land and raise strawberries with the goal of transitioning the farm into my care. While working in the fields, I sensed God s presence while He tended to His creation. 2017 began with much promise with a crop of great potential. Then the weather became a foe to the strawberries and farming in general. After 14 months of hard work, 80 percent of the berries were devastated by the heat and then the rain. Many strawberry patches across Wisconsin suffered great loss and some never opened. I used the skills I gained working 21 years in Communications to write a few books to supplement my income. Now I hope to sell books to support the farm through this year. Strawberry Wisdom shares my story of living by faith on the farm and the wisdom gained in doing so. With all the turmoil in America and the world, I pondered the stability of God s truth in the midst of chaos. I remembered His faithfulness, provision and trustworthiness during times of hardship. It will encourage you with nuggets of wisdom I discerned while observing the truth in the Word fulfilled on the farm and in life. From the Great Depression to the present, God has been pursuing my family. He has sustained us through blessings and challenges. Through it all, He has developed our faith and granted us insight into recognizing His handiwork. I have been blessed with a heritage richly marked with His fingerprints. You also get to know my dad who is a dedicated, hard working and interesting man. Dad has often said, You can easily see God s handiwork in...
