Excerpt from Life of George Leslie Mackay, D.D: 1844-1901 Characteristics - 1. Intensity in Home Agitation. - It has been said that the power of a preacher consists chiefly in the intensity of his beliefs. The words that move men are the words of burning conviction, the whole-hearted and unwavering faith in the central verities of the gospel. That appeared in every utterance from Mackay, whether by voice or pen. His correspondence, as will appear, was glowing with a white heat. When a student missionary in Ontario before his appointment to China, his intensity never cooled. After his appointment he visited many congregations and felt the chill; it was to his ardent spirit like a cold plunge. They called him an excited young man; he called them the ice age of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. But from that day the thermometer began to rise. To letters sent home by him, specimens of which we shall see, and to annual reports of his wonderful work is largely due the improved condition in this land. His first furlough...
