A young man bound for college takes one last hunting trip. In his stand by the river he witnesses an intentional drowning but refuses to get involved, he doesn't want anything to hold him up. He makes a secret call to the authorities on his CB radio. Thirty years later the guilty party confesses on his death bed and reveals there was a witness in a tree stand by the river that day unknown to him. Willoree. A beautiful young blonde farm girl is courted by a number of boys until she becomes afflicted with polio and they all stop coming except for one boy who is drafted in the army. While he is gone a local testosterone driven boy comes calling with naughty tempting words and ways. She is tempted. Her mother sends her to stay with her grandmother who has years of experience with handling men like the young midnight caller. About Zachary. A young man returning home after the great depression discovers all his relatives are dead or gone. He travels to the Okefenokee Swamp in search of a cousin but is involuntarily mixed up with a gang of violent moonshiners and pot growers. Letters. A GI returning home from Australia discovers that his fiancée at home knows that he had a girlfriend while over there. His fiancée insists that he tell her the girl's name and address. He relents when she assures him that nothing will ever separate them again. And he does love her. After that revelation begins a wise decision by the fiancée and soon to be wife that will last a lifetime. Unintended Consequences. A retired...
