Awesome Book Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Of all the shocking facts about the Civil War, one of the more remarkable is the fact that a number of women fought as soldiers, disguised as men. Feisty and clever Annie Rumsey is one such woman of valor who challenges the unfair oppression of women in her day. Young Annie defies her family, dresses in a man s Union blue uniform, enlists and fights her way across the entire Northeast theater of war, including some of the bloodiest and most pivotal battles- 1st and Bull Run, the Peninsular Campaign and 2nd Bull Run. And, in taking on the identity of a male soldier, she risks not only her life and safety; but also her female identity. Annie matures surrounded by nature and old world traditions in New York s rugged Neversink Valley. As a naturally gangly and athletic young girl, Annie eagerly shoulders responsibilities of both man and woman to help her family on their struggling farm. And when she insists on winning shooting competitions and hiking up her long skirts to ride astride, she just doesn t fit her day s standards of a woman as a passive and fluffy ornament. Relatives and community begin to single Annie out and bully her as a freak. Even though Annie craves a happy future like other girls, she can t pretend to be stupid or weak. In her late teens, she grows big and strong enough to fight her abusers; and a series of violent confrontations send her fleeing from her home. Then, disguised as a man, Annie enlists in the Union Army determined to use her unique talents as a warrior to finally do something with her life. At the...
