Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is based on practical cycling experience I have obtained over the years cycling through busy urban streets including London, United Kingdom. My cycling experience sometimes takes me to cover up to fourteen miles to and from, navigating, maneuvering and following road regulations through traffic, poorly designed road signs and layouts, roundabouts, junctions, road intersections and many more. I am writing this book to share my experience, encounters and near misses with other road users like cars, Lorries, motorcyclists and some cyclists to international cycling enthusiasts out there so as to assist safety arrival of their respective destinations. Firstly, this book highlights on main causes of cyclist s accidents and deaths. Secondly, this book would teach you more about road safety and how to ride safely on roads. Thirdly, It would help you avoid collisions, injuries, accidents and untimely deaths. Also it has the potential to teach you how to repair and maintain your bike (DIY). Ultimately, safety and accident free cycling are the book s primary goals and assures.
