Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Land Grant of 1862 and the Land-Grant Colleges Sir: The act of July 2, 1862, donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, led to the establishment of a group of higher institutions, at least one in each State, having direct relations with the Federal Government and dedicated to a common purpose. The purpose as stated in the act was the promotion of the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes. As translated in institutional practice it has meant the professional training of men and women in agriculture, home economics, and various branches of engineering. In most of the fields in which these colleges now give training, however, there was not in 1862 an organized body of scientific knowledge sufficient to furnish working material for courses such as higher institutions are expected to give. Before the common purpose which has informed these colleges could be partially realized, it has been necessary by research and experimentation to develop several sciences...
