

Productivity: Winning in Life

By Michael A. Podolinsky

McGraw-Hill Education - Europe, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 155 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Overview Productivity, our value-add, must be measured as a whole. What do we, as living beings in this world, add in terms of value to our world? With this thought-provoking note, Asia's productivity guru Michael Podolinsky sets the tone for a holistic, insightful, and refreshing approach of integrating passion into a productivity-driven world to help readers to develop productivity in the context of building steady relationships and finding inner peace and contentment. Features: The author shares his invaluable techniques and tips on how to: plan and monitor lifelong goals; prioritize effectively; get time-wasting peers into one's system; handle everyday energy-draining distractions at work; drive career to the top; attain work/life balance; use stress in advancing career in a healthful way; reconnect with their true passions in life; and own a more successful future. In this book, the author introduces his proprietary ACTS-IM Goal Attainment Model[®] and ABCDE Priority System[®] as well as address areas rarely covered in a business book, such as faith (not religion) and success defined in terms of being at peace rather than in financial...

READ ONLINE
[5.89 MB]

Reviews

This pdf is wonderful. It is definitely simplified but excitement from the 50 percent in the ebook. You won't sense monotony at any time of your time (that's what catalogues are for relating to should you request me).

-- Jaqueline Kerluke

I just started looking at this pdf. It can be really fascinating through studying period of time. It's been printed in an extremely basic way and is particularly only following I finished reading through this publication where in fact altered me, change the way I really believe.

-- Mr. Stephan McKenzie