Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A stranger s murder in the dark alley behind May s Flower Shop is causing the residents of Park Place, South Carolina to keep their children inside and their doors locked at night. Banty Hen Antique Shop owners, Sam and Valerie Owens, are caught right smack dab in the middle since they were the last ones to see the victim alive. Valerie s new venture, the Sweet Tea Quilting Bee is comprised of an eclectic mix of women, calling themselves newbies and oldies in the art of quilting. Their weekly meetings help keep Valerie s mind off the murder, but it s hard to keep the secret from the ladies that the victim was killed over, of all things, a quilt! The murder suspect has been described as tall and thin, a pitifully vague description, but Police Chief Jess Hamilton and his new detective, a self-described Columbo, are on the case, questioning every tall and thin person in town. Even Sister Margaret, a nun who has just begun her mission at St. Gabriel s Catholic Church, doesn t go unnoticed. But it s hard not to notice a nun who dances, and sings along with country music when she thinks no one s watching.
