By MR Steve Rothwell

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When I first started in the motor trade back in 1974 I can remember on my first day one of the old hands in the workshop telling me once you put them overalls on it s very hard to get them off It was his way of telling me that once I had begun my career path by working on the workshop floor it was very hard to change direction and get into a white collar job. I have been working in the motor trade for over 37 years now and most of that time has been spent on the workshop floor with a spanner in my hand. For the past eleven years I have been writing a regular four pages a month for Car Mechanics Magazine and having seen so many changes in the industry over my many years, and being always ready to tell my story I thought it was about time I wrote down my experiences. Now updated and re-edited. I hope you will enjoy reading them.
