From Major-General A. B., Commdg. the CD. Distriot. To The Quarter-Master General, Horse Guards. (Place) (Date) Sir, I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of today s date directing the Batt. of the Regt. to hold itself in readiness to embark at Portsmouth on the inst. The men have been medically inspected according to your instructions. I have now the honor to request that I may be informed whether it is intended that the men on the married establishment should be accompanied by their wives. I have the honor to be, Sir, Tour obedient servant, A. B., Major-General, Commdg. the CD. District. This arrangement admits of a number of letters when read, being rapidly turned over for reference. It is also the practice to enter these dockets into a book with all other particulars relating to the letter, which may facilitate reference. Memo. To The O.O. Regt. The new regulation moving and vanishing targets having been now erected on the rifle range for the use of the troops in this brigade, applications from any company or companies requiring the whole or partial use of them, should be made to the Brigade-Major stating the number of men under training in musketry, the number of targets required, for what period the practice will last, Ac., in order that every arrangement may be made to comply with your demands, as far as possible with regard to the convenience of the other...
