Excerpt: .to take to my bed, nor to omit one public service, though it has been very difficult for me to keep about, and more difficult for nie to preach. He says cupping and blistering may ease the pain in the side, and allay the cough, but that a thorough change of air, such as a voyage to Bermuda or England, would be preferable; At four o clock the work on places near had already begun, and the Governor, who had mustered a detachment of Colonial cavalry, and with some other Government officials had proceeded up the coast, met about forty armed negroes, to whom, in a parley, be then and for the first time communicated the chief particulars of what, in bis own disobedience to the home Government, he had so long kept back. But the little crowd distrusted him; would not lay down...
