You never heard of a comedy team that didnt fight, did you But for twenty years as a professional team, Lou and I were closer than man and wife. - Bud Abbott A husband is whats left of a sweetheart after the nerve has been killed. Lou Costello A lot of ink has been spilled covering the lives of historys most influential figures, but how much of the forest is lost for the trees In Charles River Editors American Legends series, readers can get caught up to speed on the lives of Americas most important men and women in the time it takes to finish a commute, while learning interesting facts long forgotten or never known. Ironically, one of Americas most famous comedy duos, and the performers of the countrys most famous skit, came together in part because Lou Costello had already failed to cut it in the film industry. In fact, Costello had appeared in a Laurel and Hardy film in 1927 before meeting his partner, Bud Abbott, on the burlesque circuit in New York City. In fact, the two first performed together in 1935 only because Abbott filled in for Costellos usual partner, who happened to be ill one fateful day. Over time, Abbott and Costello perfected their routine, which typically consisted of Abbott playing the straight man while his dimwit partner acted foolishly and interrupted his plans. It was a shtick that also did well on radio, albeit one that required Costello to modify his voice with a higher pitch that...
