Do we really understand how God looks at us? Many of us claim to know the fact that God is unconditionally loving, but then we live like such a thing is not true.as if we have to earn His favor. Love is not just something to be acknowledged with our mental consent, like a far off concept that has no personal meaning. It s something that God intends for us to feel and experience for ourselves. In this little book are truths that many of us fail to think about from day to day. Prepare to have the depths of your heart laid out before you as you read it. May you be blessed and brought to deeper places in your relationship with God as you see His reckless, unconditional love for you.
