Indian Summer and Other Stories (Paperback)

By Fred Bubbers

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . INDIAN SUMMER AND OTHER STORIES is a series of subtle remembrances, drawn by a deft hand, suggesting the world is at sixes and sevens normally, not on that rare and odd day. Author Fred Bubbers life view is focused on the undramatic act that becomes the crucial tipping point-the unperceived or unannounced moment of truth. He sees what is newsworthy beyond the newspaper headline and lead paragraph of life s stories and draws his conclusions from paragraphs farther down in the article. You won t always be clear on what happens in these yarns when they close, but you can rest assured that a thin layer of disappointment covers them all. When you string enough slices of life together, you get a loaf of life that is INDIAN SUMMER. This is not big history; it is small people in history, their own histories, even as the author manages to weave the larger social reality into his text. The stories are highly evocative of mid-20th century United States and represent something of a special treat for those who grew up in the...
