Share Life Publishing, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you ever wonder why some people always seem to win? Why some people seem to have all the luck? They have the great job, the beautiful house and the rockin car. What makes them different? Simply this. they take the keys while you ask where we are going. If you want to live an amazing life, get out of the passenger seat, take the keys and start the car. If you are a passenger on your own life journey, you are always heading to destination unknown. All the while, holding on for dear life as the led footed driver whips you around corners on his merry adventure. In book one of The Dream Life Roadmap Series, you will see why a deadly combination of cloudy vision, passenger seat riding, comfort zone living, shaky confidence and lack of discipline are killing your dreams. You ll see how instead of falling in, you can skillfully navigate around the potholes on your journey as you tap into the power of confidence and persistent problem solving. You ll identify how runaway thoughts may be secretly controlling your actions and behavior. Most importantly, you ll see how your own thoughts are sabotaging your future. I thought I had reached the good life after following all the rules, working hard and rising to the CEO level of a hospital. Little did I know everything was about to change. I found my life in turmoil after getting fired and shortly thereafter getting divorced after twenty-five years of marriage. I was devastated. I called on my faith to help pull myself up mentally and emotionally and like a butterfly, I emerged. I willed my life forward by developing...
