Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 81: January 23, 1919 The subject of doing work for the dead was revealed very early to the Prophet Joseph. In the first visit made to him by the angel, when Joseph was about eighteen years old, the angel explained the Scriptures to him and quoted the last chapter in the Old Testament, where Malachi refers to the coming of Elijah, who should turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the children's hearts to the fathers. Joseph may not have fully understood it then, but before his death the Spirit worked upon him to make things plain and to give the keys of this great principle to his fellow laborers, the apostles. And he was so impressed with the work that he calls it the most glorious of all subjects belonging to the Everlasting Gospel. So I am glad to state to you that there has been progress in this matter; that the saints are influenced by the spirit of salvation for the dead. And are accomplishing a great work in the temples. There has been a larger attendance at Sacrament meetings in the six months ending June 30th, than during any other similar period since reports were kept. We are pleased to hear this, and we want to say to the Latter-day Saints that none of them should be satisfied to stay at home and not attend the Sacrament meetings. Do not feel that you can get along just as well without as with attendance at these meetings. It is a great loss to those who stay away. You go there to worship God, to be instructed in...
