Excerpt from Animal Welfare Information Center Newsletter, Vol. 3: July-September, 1992 Extremists who perpetrate crimes in the name of animal rights ignore not only the rights of others, but also their own rights of free speech. Responsible dissent is protected by law - none of us would have it any other way. But ideological terrorists and vigilantes who take the law into their own hands must be stopped. Everyone can agree that we owe an enormous debt to research animals. Laboratory animals should be utilized only when necessary and must be well cared for and respected for humane as well as scientific reasons. But no one can condone lawless and senseless destructive acts for whatever reason they are motivated. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
