The Kixing

By Frank Graves

Paperback. Condition: New. 406 pages. The Newest Work is The Kixing published in June 2014 THE KIXING STORYLINE A major conglomerate attempts a hostile take-over of a small family company using dirty methods including professional and underhanded industrial espionage methods. However, the large group meets their match as the owners of the small firm that is Mafia connected resists the attempt. The chairman of the major group is also a well known boxing promoter, who when acquiring a bookmaking business using similar type tactics creates his own total undoing of his business empire. Using hardened trained human fighters with lightweight gladiatorial designer armour, these very private illegal bouts are always held amid sumptuous black-tie dinner events especially laid on for the extremely rich and titled. In every vicious contest, the loser always being smashed to a pulp, critically maimed or better still and mercifully . . . killed in full view of the sophisticated audience and is known as THE KIXING. The reason for protection of this sport is the massive illegal gambling side with ensuing high stakes. There are never any other winners in commerce or sport when the conglomerate chairman promotes his beloved Kixing fights. The YouTube version is...
