Reviews

This ebook is worth acquiring. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of your own time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Psalm 8 describes creation as the work of his (God s) fingers. The vast world we view as so complex is really just a work done with a few fingers. There were no massive machines, no grandiose architectural designs. The universe is just a work done with a few of God s fingers. It is a picture painted by God or a fabric knitted by God. Our universe is not something simply willed by God. It is something created by God using existing substances. One Old Testament image is God creating humans by knitting them in the womb of our mother. A creation account in the book of Genesis says: The Lord God created man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being. God used clay of the earth to create humankind. We are not simply that clay from the earth, we are formed with the very breath of God. We are like God and also like the rest of creation formed of the earth s clay. God gives us an admonition: cultivate and care for creation. It is God s creation not ours. The creation account also reveals how we fell from that privileged position in God s universe. Adam (a word that simply means man) was told to cultivate and care for the universe. He was not to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. The description of the temptation which led to mankind s sin is interesting. When man (Adam) was tempted to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, he was told:...
