In 1957, over my opposition, the Civil Rights Commission came into being. Its objectives were to assess the laws and policies of the Federal Government in regard to denials of equal protection under the law, to report its findings and recommendations to the President within 2 years, and then disappear. It is now 1972, that particular report has never been made, and the Commission is here again asking for large sums of public money and yet another extension. Congress has extended the life of the Commission five times since its inception in 1957. Its permanent staff has grown from 87 in 1959 to 176 in 1972. An additional 40 permanent positions have been requested for fiscal year 1973, and no one knows how many employees it will have by 1978. Amounts appropriated for the work of the Commission have swelled from an original appropriation of $777,000 in...

Reviews

It is great and fantastic. It is one of the most remarkable book i have got go through. You wont truly feel monotony at whenever you want of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about when you check with me).

-- Matt Rodriguez

A must buy book if you need to adding benefit. It really is packed with wisdom and knowledge I found out this book from my dad and i encouraged this pdf to understand.
